Wider personal development - update on December opportunities

December has been a month full of enriching experiences, blending cultural, social, and educational activities for our students. We began with the Forward Thinking Celebration Event, honoring Year 11 students who successfully completed the University of Birmingham's aspiration programme. Year 7 students enjoyed a festive trip to the Wolverhampton Grand Theatre, immersing themselves in the magic of live performance. Our Year 12 and 13 Business students explored commerce at the German Christmas

Market. Meanwhile, Year 10 Business students visited Cadbury World, gaining insights into marketing, history and production of one of Britain's most iconic brands.

Sixth Form students enjoyed two fantastic winter-themed activities: an exhilarating ice-skating trip in Birmingham city centre and a movie night.

These activities reflect our commitment to providing diverse opportunities that foster personal growth, cultural awareness, and a strong sense of community.

Instrumental lessons

1. There are still a number of students who have not returned their Home school agreements. I have given out NEW hard copies to those students that we have not received them from. (I apologise if you have handed it in and it has gone astray)
2. Payments for Spring lessons were due on 29th November. There are still students who have not paid for their lessons as of yet. Please can I remind you that if you intended to cancel you needed to give a half term notice so we can cancel with the teachers. Students will be unable to commence lessons until they have paid.
3. Can I also remind students that they should be taking their instruments home so that they can practise. If they are left in school they should be locked in the music office or one of the practice rooms.
4. Piano lessons in the spring term will be on Thursdays and NOT Wednesdays.

Masterclasses by UOB

The University of Birmingham organises a range of masterclasses throughout the year, designed to support students in their secondary education but also spark a curiosity and aspiration to study at university. This popular masterclass programme provides school students in Years 7-13 with fun, engaging, and interactive insights into what it's like to study at a selective university, but also provides opportunities for students to stretch and challenge themselves, thereby supporting their GCSE and A-level studies

More information on the programme, as well as how to register for a masterclass, can be found here:
